

CHAUFFEUR SENT TO WORKHOUSE FOR SPEEDING

Court At Last Finds Case in Which Fine Isn't Enough Punishment.

At last an auto driver has been sent to the workhouse in this city for speeding.

While Deputy Police Commissioner Arthur Seft, Dobson, of his staff, and his chauffeur, William Leitch, were riding through Chinatown yesterday they saw another car running at a high rate of speed on the wrong side of the street, zigzagging among teams and narrowly avoiding collisions.

Commissioner Bingham ordered his men to arrest the chauffeur, and when they signalled him to stop he put on more power and tried to get away. He was chased into Lafayette street and as far north as Franklin, when he was caught. He proved to be Henry Connors, a negro driver for the E. W. Hils Company, of Brooklyn. When the car was stopped a man who was in it got out and went on up town in the subway.

When Seft, Dobson and Policeman Leitch gave their testimony against Connors in the Night Court Magistrate Droege said that Commissioner Bingham had told him the case was a particularly aggravated one.

"Five days in the workhouse," said Magistrate Droege.

The chauffeur was most touchached to make any comment on his sentence before he was led away to a cell.

NORDICA CAN'T SING BECAUSE OF A COLD

Caught It on Opening Night of Manhattan Opera-House—Bill Changed To-Night.

Mrs. Lillian Nordica is confined to her apartment, No. 51 West Forty-eighth street, recovering from a cold and hoarseness contracted on the opening night of the Manhattan Opera-House. She was to appear to-night in "La Traviata," but instead "Carmen" will be sung.

"The dressing-rooms of the Manhattan were not well heated on the first night," said Mrs. Nordica to-day, "and the cold seized me. I am satisfied and thankful that it is not more serious, for I feel certain that I should be confined indoors for several weeks. My physician informs me that I shall be able to appear in a few days."

Mrs. Nordica-Reiche will make her initial appearance here as Carmen to-night. She is a protegee of Mrs. Calve, and has sung in Spain and Italy.

GIVES UP HIS PULPIT TO GO INTO BUSINESS.

Rev. Charles J. Scudder Will Take Up Wallpaper Manufacturing with Father-in-Law.

The Rev. Charles Judson Scudder has resigned the pastorate of the First Reformed Church, Brooklyn, and entered the office of Janeway & Carpenter, 111 Broadway, N. Y., where he will engage in the wall paper manufacturing business. Mr. Scudder and his wife will live in New Brunswick.

Mr. Scudder comes from a line of missionaries and was born in Velore, India. In 1861 he is believed to have been persuaded by his father-in-law, Col. Jacob J. Janeway, to give up the pulpit for a business career.

MOVING-PICTURE SHOWS ON SUNDAYS ILLEGAL.

Justice in Denying Motion to Enjoin Police Charges Injustice Against Force.

That five-cent moving picture shows given Sundays are no worse than those given at from 50 cents to $2 admission is the view of Justice Aspinall, of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn. In denying a motion to enjoin the police from interfering with Sunday exhibitions in a five-cent arcade in Jamaica Justice Aspinall said yesterday:

"If moving-picture exhibitions are public shows, then surely the exhibitors in the larger halls are equally so and should be governed by the same law. Why this discrimination on the part of the police? It is an American law and unjust, but law is law. I must be governed by it and act accordingly."

ALDERMAN-ELECT SPAT, WAS FINED $1

Maybe Interborough Will Hear Something About Cuspidsors When Davis Sits.

Perry L. Davis, Alderman-elect of the Thirtieth Aldermanic District, was arrested to-day on the One Hundred and Sixty-first street station of the Third avenue "L" for expectorating, in violation of the health ordinance.

When Policeman Joseph Shoyin, of the Bronx Board of Health, stepped up to the young politician and announced that he was under arrest, Davis drew back and announced that he was an Alderman. This had no weight with the policeman and a few moments later he arraigned his prisoner before Magistrate Crane, in the Morrisania Court.

"Why, hello, Davis," said the Magistrate, "what are you doing in here?"

"I came up to have a little talk with you," smiled Davis, "but on the way I was pinched." Then the policeman explained the situation.

"Though I don't blame you entirely," said the Court, "I must uphold the law. Of course, the Interborough Company is really to blame for not having an adequate number of cuspidors on the stations, and it would be well if the officers of that company were arrested for dereliction."

"I will fine you $1 and suggest that when you take your seat in the Aldermanic Chamber you call the attention of the Public Service Corporation to the remissness of the railroad company in the matter of cuspidors."

The prisoner paid his fine and then went up on the bench for a chat with his friend the Magistrate.

AMERICAN SILK WAR OVER.

Franklin Allen, secretary of the Silk Association of America, announced yesterday at the offices in the Silk Exchange Building that the Japanese silk war, involving trade conditions in raw silk, had ended.

Presenting Best Clothes and Greatest Values in Celebration of Twenty Completed Years of Wonderful Success.

Celebrating 20 years of business building—each year selling better and better merchandise, giving better and better value, until to-day ten of the greatest clothing shops in America are required to supply Brill stores. Four of the shops tailor Brill clothes under Brill direction, and six are nationally known as the most modern tailoring institutions in America. No other concern in New York enjoys this tenfold supply source.

Celebrating 20 years of achievements that have won to Brill stores a larger and better patronage than any other concern ever gained in the same short time, until to-day Brill stores are the fastest growing clothing stores in America.

TO OUR FRIENDS:

Completing 20 years of business here in New York, in which time we have grown from one small store at 47 Cortlandt St., opened with only $300 capital, to the four big stores you now know, we feel that our success is due in greatest measure to the support and loyalty of our many customers. We want to celebrate our "Business Birthday," and the best way we know of celebrating is to give "Birthday Presents" to our friends in the form of Anniversary Specials. These specials, we personally assure you, are the best merchandise procurable and prices were not marked with an idea of profit.

Thanking you all,

Brill Brothers
